Old Tucson Caps Off 75th Anniversary Celebration with 75¢ Kids Weekend!

(Tucson, AZ) Join Old Tucson on Friday, January 17 thru Monday, January 19 as they conclude their 75th Anniversary celebration with a 75¢ Kids Weekend! Child admission (ages 4-11) over the Martin Luther King Day weekend is just 75¢! Kids ages 3 and under are always admitted free.

Families will enjoy a great day together with Old Tucson's signature live stunt, comedy, and musical shows along with living history presentations that describe life in the real Old West. Old Tucson historians will lead guests on film history tours highlighting movies that were made on the historic sets over the last 75 years. Kids will love riding the train, antique cars, and vintage carousel. Stagecoach and trail rides also are available (additional charge). It's a great day of Western family fun at a great anniversary price!

Old Tucson is Southern Arizona's premier film location and Hollywood's most famous Western movie location recognized in over 300 feature films and TV Westerns. For more information about Old Tucson, visit www.OldTucson.com/ or call (520) 883-0100. Old Tucson is located in Tucson Mountain Park at 201 S. Kinney Road, Tucson, AZ.
