A superstar in its own right, Old Tucson has hosted over 400 film and television productions since 1939 including Western film classics such as Rio Bravo, The Outlaw Josey Wales and Tombstone. John Wayne, Clint Eastwood, Elizabeth Taylor and Kurt Russell are just a few of the legends who have walked these fabled streets playing the unforgettable roles that are etched in our minds and hearts forever.

Attractions & Amusements

NATIVE VILLAGE
SHELTON HALL MOVIE MUSEUM
IRON DOOR HAUNTED MINE
CAROUSEL
C.P. HUNTINGTON TRAIN
ANTIQUE CARS
DEAD-EYE DAN’S SHOOTING GALLERY ($)
PAN FOR GOLD ($)
STAGECOACH RIDES ($)

Upcoming Events

July 29
O’odham New Year Dance (Waila)

Sept. 2 - 4
This Labor Day Weekend say good-bye to the Dog Days of Summer

Kids 11 and under in free. Canine companions welcome!

Visit www.oldtucson.com for details on these and many more upcoming events!

Grub

LA PLAZA ICE CREAM
PONY EXPRESS PIZZA, WINGS & MORE
GRAND PALACE HOTEL & SALOON
BIG JAKES BBQ & MORE
ELIXIR Rx

Shopping

McLINTOCK’S
OLSEN’S MERCANTILE
OLD-TIME PHOTO EMPORIUM
PHOEBES SWEET SHOPPE
THE LAST OUTPOST
CORNER STORE