This year marks the 50th Anniversary of professional actors, stuntmen and stuntwomen performing live on the legendary streets of Old Tucson. The Reunion celebrates this enduring history and the contributions of the gunfighter and musical cast as well as other alumni who hosted our guests from the 1960s to today.

The highlight of the day will be the biggest showdown in Old Tucson's history – performances of an original story by gunfighter alumni Dennis Leoni (Resurrection Boulevard, McKenna) and Richard Wenz. "The Great Gold Robbery" will be performed by 50 gunfighters who walked these legendary streets over the last 50 years. Two performances of this special Reunion show will be presented at 11:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

All Old Tucson employee alumni from the past and present are invited to come back to Old Tucson to reminisce about their days in the Old West and cheer on those re-visiting their acting days. For more information or to sign on for this historic event, visit <http://otalumnishootout.wordpress.com> or the Facebook page "Old Tucson Studios Alumni".
